

- Riskind J, Gotay C. 1982. "Physical posture: Could it have regulatory or feedback effects on motivation and emotion?" Motivation and Emotion 6 (3): 273-298.
- Stallibrass C, Sissons P, Chalmers C. 2002. "Randomized controlled trial of the Alexander Technique for idiopathic Parkinson's disease." Clinical Rehabilitation 16: 705-718.
- Varela F., Thompson E., Rosch E. 1993. The Embodied Mind: Cognitive Science and Human Experience. Massachusetts: MIT Press.

Maria Vahervuo was born in Finland and currently lives in The Netherlands. She teaches Alexander Technique and baroque double bass at the Sibelius Academy and Novia University of Applied Sciences in Finland, and performs in early music orchestras and ensembles throughout Europe. She trained as an Alexander Technique teacher at Alexander Techniek Opleiding Nederland with Arie Jan Hoorweg, and took part in the Embodied Mind Project formerly led by Rachel Zahn.

Ellen O. Bierhorst, Ph.D. has been a holistically-oriented psychologist in private practice in Cincinnati since 1973. She trained as an Alexander Technique teacher with Vivien and Neil Schapera, graduating in 2009. Today she divides her time equally between psychotherapy clients and Alexander Technique students.

Ellen and Maria met at the 2015 Alexander Congress in Limerick, where they discovered a mutual fascination with the psychological power of the AT, which they determined to research, despite being on opposite sides of the Atlantic.